Lloyd David, MBA
Executive Director/CEO

“I want all of our doctors to be successful everyday and I strive for them to have the proper systems in place.”

Lloyd David joined The Polyclinic in 1994 as Executive Director /CEO. Since his arrival The Polyclinic has grown from 70 to over 125 physicians, revenue has tripled and it now serves more than 120,000 patients in the Seattle-area. Three specialties have been added to the multi-specialty group as well as ancillary services such as sleep medicine, physical therapy, hospitalists, diagnostic imaging and laboratories. The Polyclinic has expanded to 11 locations and has launched disease management programs to provide extra patient care and support. Over the past twelve years, The Polyclinic has consistently achieved its goals and mission and has been ranked number one in patient satisfaction for the state of Washington.

Mr. David’s primary role is to develop strategy and ensure the values and mission of The Polyclinic are appropriately supported by its people, systems and culture. After nearly 100 years, The Polyclinic continues to meet these goals.

Mr. David also helped found the Puget Sound Health Alliance, a not-for profit coalition of purchasers, providers, consumers, and payers dedicated to improving health care quality and cost in the region. Mr. David currently serves as secretary of the Board of Directors of the Puget Sound Health Alliance. He also previously served as president of the Washington Medical Group Alliance, an association of 12 large medical groups and as a trustee of the Washington State Medical Group Management Association.

Prior to joining The Polyclinic in 1994, Mr. David served in a variety of administrative roles at Harborview Medical Center where his responsibilities included strategic and facility planning, marketing, regulatory affairs, fund development and organization training and development. He has a B.A. in government from Harvard University and an Executive M.B.A. from the University of Washington.
